Subject: International Conference for Queer South Asians in San Francisco

Hello,

Trikone, a registered non-profit for Queer South Asians based in San Francisco bay area is hosting DesiQ 2006, an International Conference for Queer South Asians.

Trikone is the only organization which hosts such conferences. This is the third conference of this kind. The first one was in 1995 and the second one in 2000.

We hope to have over 100 activists from all over the world to discuss and share ideas related to issues within Queer South Asian community and how it relates to the broader world. This is a wonderful opportunity for press to meet and possibly interview so many, hard to find, South Asian queer activists from all over the world.

Please, be mindful of the fact that some of these people are still uncomfortable with their pictures in the mainstream media. So, please get explicit permission from all the persons you photograph.

This Kit includes

- This cover letter
- Information about the DesiQ Core Organizing Committee
- Long and Short version of Press Release
- More information about Trikone, the host organization
- FAQs

We hope you will cover this event in your publication.

Thanks,
